

Using Electronic Reserves

Bailey Library
Slippery Rock University

<http://doculib.sru.edu/default.asp>

- Use your Internet browser to open the Electronic Reserves home page at the URL listed above.
- Choose: Electronic Reserves and Course Materials
- Choose your instructor's name from the pull-down menu marked "Select an Instructor" and click on GO.
- Click on the appropriate course name.
- Read the copyright disclaimer. Enter the password your professor has assigned and click on accept to enter the reserves list.
- Click on the title of the article you've been assigned. It should then automatically open. In order, however, to read some of the articles listed, you may need to install Adobe Acrobat reader (which is free). If so, simply click on the link: (Problems viewing PDF or other file formats? Read this!), which you will find on the list of articles available for your class.
